

Florida Association for Women Lawyers

President

Laura K. Wendell, Miami

President-Elect

Brittany Maxey, Clearwater

Immediate Past President

Susan R. Healy, Naples

Treasurer

Kristin Norse, Tampa

Secretary

Kathryn Lancaster, Gainesville

Legislative Director

Robin Bresky, Boca Raton

Development Director

Mary Ann Etzler, Orlando

Journal Editor

Dora Acherman, Miami

Membership Director

Samantha Schosberg Feuer

Public Relations Director

Robyn Featherston

Executive Director

Karen Howe, Tallahassee

Chapters:

- Barry University
- Brevard County
- Broward County
- Central Florida
- Citrus/Hernando
- Clara Gehan (8th Circuit)
- Collier County
- Florida International
- Florida State University WLS
- Hillsborough County
- Jacksonville
- Lee County
- Manatee County
- Marion County
- Martin County
- Miami-Dade County
- Northwest/ Pensacola Florida
- Nova University
- Palm Beach County
- Pinellas County
- Sarasota County
- South Palm Beach County
- Stetson University
- St. Thomas University
- Tallahassee
- Third Circuit
- University of Florida
- University of Miami
- Volusia/Flagler

FAWL Civility Policy

FAWL (or FAWL chapter) hereby adopts the following policy with regard to the discussion of, reference to or reporting on women in public discourse:

FAWL supports and encourages open and civil discourse of issues affecting all aspects life, including those issues that may be considered controversial in nature. FAWL opposes any reference to women or an individual woman in a gender-based prejudicial, demeaning, derogatory, or dehumanizing manner. FAWL opposes any effort to minimize the contribution of women through the use of gender-based prejudicial, demeaning, derogatory or dehumanizing descriptions of their work, words or actions. FAWL opposes any use of gender-based derogatory, demeaning, prejudicial, or dehumanizing terms related to women or their bodies or actions to describe any human being regardless of gender. FAWL opposes the unfair, unjust or inequitable stereotyping of women. FAWL opposes the use of images of women that demean, dehumanize or prejudice the contribution or actions of women or an individual woman in the media.

~ Adopted September 20, 2012