LAWYERS

PRESENTS A PANEL DISCUSSION:

CREATING YOUR BLUEPRINT FOR LEADERSHIP: Based on the ABA book "Learning to lead – What Really Works for Women in the Law" by Gingi Eckel Vincent and Mary Bailey Cranston.

Join judges and lawyer leaders to discuss the female leadership gap in the legal profession, as well as potential solutions to close this gap.

Approximately half of all law students have been women since the early 1990's, but women lawyers make up only 4% of managing partners, 15% of equity partners, and 24% of federal district judges.

Moderator: The Honorable Nina Ashenafi Richardson

Lorna Brown Burton, Esq.
